

ATTRACTIONS

1. Railway Museum D6
 Located in heritage listed Railway Station buildings this museum is a must for railway buffs. See a steam train and climb the signal tower. Located Great Eastern Highway adjacent the water tower.
 Open (Monday to Friday 10am - 1pm) (Saturday 9am - 12noon) (Sunday 11am - 2pm) Entry fee applies.
 Times for Museums may change due to unforeseen circumstances.

1. Merredin Military Museum D6
 A fine collection of memorabilia, uniforms and equipment relating to most conflicts from World War 1 onwards. Located Great Eastern Highway adjacent the water tower. Open 10am-3pm Monday to Saturday. Entry fee applies. T: 0429 411 204.

1. Railway Water Tower & Pioneer Park D6
 The Railway Water Tower supplied locomotives until the 1960's. Heritage listed. Located Great Eastern Highway between the Museums. Pioneer Park has a grouping of bronze figures and was erected to remind us of how crops in the area were first grown. Located under the water tower.

2. Cummins Theatre Website: www.cumminstheatre.com.au D5
 This heritage listed theatre c1928 is still in use today. Appointments for viewing can be made if you ring: 9041 3295 or ask at the Visitor Centre. Located in Bates Street between Mitchell and Coronation Streets.

3. Merredin Peak Reserve and Railway Dam G5
 This rock and adjacent woodland is well worth exploring. Rainwater that flows off the Peak drains into the dam. Take time to walk the Rock and Bush Trails. Allow about 60 minutes to enjoy the trail. A moderate level of fitness is recommended. Take water, a hat and insect repellent. (The drive along Goldfields Road to the north of the Reserve is a good place for wildflowers in winter and spring.)

3. WW II Army Hospital Site H4
 In 1942 the Australian General Army Hospital was relocated from Tobruk to this site. At one time it had over 600 patients. Extensive interpretation on site. Located at Merredin Peak off Benson Road to the east of the Railway Dam.

4. Tamma Parkland & Pioneer Cemetery C8
 Visit in winter and spring to see orchids and flowering shrubs. Enjoy the carpet of yellow everlastings in late spring. Easy 1.2km walking trail.

5. Pumping Station No. 4 A4
 One of 8 pumping stations used to pump water from Mundaring to the Goldfields it was built in 1902 and now a preserved ruin. Interpretation on site. Located 3kms west of Merredin on the Great Eastern Highway.

6. CBH (Co-operative Bulk Handling) Wheat Storage & Transfer Depot A4
 The largest inland receival point in the State. Total storage exceeds 460,000 tonnes of grain. Located on the west side of town. View from Great Eastern Highway and the Goldfields Road.

TOTADGIN CONSERVATION PARK TRAIL
 Distance return 30kms. Allow half a day. Sealed roads
 This is a must for granite rock devotees and those interested in natural history. The park is 14kms from Merredin off the Bruce Rock Road. An interpretive walk trail travels over the rock and adjacent bushland. Allow 45 minutes minimum for the walk. Level or difficulty is low. Disabled access is available from Hunt's Well car park to the mini wave in the rock. Good walking shoes, hat and water bottle are needed.

WILDFLOWERS & HERITAGE TRAIL
 Merredin via the Merredin Nungarin Road.
 Park, if you have time. Enjoy a visit to the Military Museum at Nungarin before heading back to (open 1pm - 4pm closed Wednesday). A short trip further west is Billyacatching Hill Conservation lunch. Mangowine Homestead is the next stop on the list and is a National Trust Heritage Site Eaglestone Rock and Lake Brown to explore around the salt lake and granite rocks, a great place for in season, drop in to see the Wildflowers at Mt Moore and Talgottine Reserve. Drive on to Take the Golden Pipeline Heritage Trail east from Merredin along the Goldfields road to Buracoppin. The former headquarters of the State Barrier Fence. There is an interpretive shelter and panels on the south side of the Great Eastern Highway and along the Goldfields Road east from Edna May Gold Mine viewing platform just north of town. Sandford Rocks Reserve is 10kms north east and is a great place to stop and explore, have a picnic or look for wildflowers in season.
